

Athletics
Australia

COACHING NEWS

Monday, 3 May 2010

An afternoon with UWE Hohn Clinic for Javelin Coaches

WHEN: Saturday 15 May, 2010
TIME: 2 – 4 pm
WHERE: Melbourne Olympic Park
COST: $10
RSVP: Matt Griffin – matt@athsvic.org.au
Michael Poulton – Michael.poulton@athletics.com.au

Athletics Australia in conjunction with Athletics Victoria, invites you to attend an afternoon for Javelin Coaches with Uwe Hohn. Uwe continues to hold the record for the world longest ever recorded Javelin throw at 104 metres. Uwe is currently in Australia, coaching Jarrod Bannister and Katherine Mitchell, as well as contributing his expertise and knowledge to a range of other coaches and athletes around the country.

Uwe will conduct a clinic for coaches of athletes aged 15 and over, who are keen to extend their technical knowledge of this event.

Enquiries can be directed to either Matt Griffin or Michael Poulton at the email addresses above.

PRINCIPAL PARTNER